Information of the work done by Dhankuta Municipality to prevent COVID-19 infection and solve the problems created due to lockdown

- Health care equipments and PPE have been provided to the health workers, ambulance drivers, city police, sanitation workers and emergency service personnel working in the Dhankuta Municipality.

- Public places within the municipality, crowded areas, drug stores, food, fruit and vegetable shops have been sprayed with drugs to prevent contamination (Disinfection).
• Soap, water and sanitizer have been provided for hand washing in public places within the main market area.

• A 50-bed quarantine center has been set up in an industrial area in Dhankuta Municipality Ward No. 6. Where necessary provisioning materials, electricity, water, security and communication have been arranged.

• Combo packs of food have been distributed to daily wage earners, extremely poor squatters and resource less families who are having difficulty in earning a living due to the lockdown.
• A committee has been formed in each ward under the coordination of the ward chairperson to facilitate supply management in the town.

• Informing all the city people about the precautions to be taken to avoid infection with Corona virus through media, social media and mic.

• The mayor is coming to the door to understand the problems of the lower class city peoples, who are in trouble due to the lockdown.
• Work is being done to provide employment to low income people who have lost their jobs due to lockdown.

• Grain, fruit and vegetable seeds are being distributed to the farmers of the municipal area to solve the food crisis in the world.

• For various reasons, the city peoples living in other cities of the country were rescued and brought back home.